BEYOND STEREO ENTERTAINMENT

Beyond Stereo Entertainment, founded by immersive music producer and DJ David Chevere (Ziron), focuses on innovating the future of music and entertainment through immersive audio and visual technology. With a background in music production, sound design, and experience working with Sennheiser's ambisonics technology, David created Beyond Stereo to educate and support creators who challenge traditional boundaries. The platform fosters leadership and innovation, guiding artists to explore new possibilities and redefine the entertainment experience.

BEYOND STEREO ENTERTAINMENT

Beyond Stereo Entertainment distinguishes itself by the unparalleled hustle, leadership, dedication, and discipline evident in its artists.

Their artists are committed to maintaining focus on all aspects required for involvement and respect within the music industry.

They lead by example, setting trends and upholding the highest standards.

The leadership within Beyond Stereo inspires rigorous effort, while meticulous attention to detail—from production to performance—ensures absolute professionalism.

Joining Beyond Stereo signifies entry into a community where commitment is paramount.

Artists serious about their craft and willing to work diligently will find the respect and opportunities they seek.
